Bournemouth – Judge Mrs J Keeves

Firstly, thank you to the committee for asking me to judge their show. I had several exhibitors give me their apologies so when I saw the entries I was concerned that I may have to withhold, however what I lacked in quantity I had the quality all through.

PD 2(1) 1. Hiam's Carradine Arfa Pint. Very showy red brindle, head of good proportions, with large teeth, nice length of neck flowing into level top-line and good tail set, good forechest, well laid shoulders and depth of chest, firm loin, set down in lovely condition, moved out well with purpose, BPD & BPIB.

JD 2(0) 1. Danielsson's Tom Trick's Kurt Kinloch. Well made all through, good harsh jacket, good depth and spring of rib, lovely head with good bite, moved out with drive.
2 Waugh's Glenrood Galaxy at Tribannon. Still a puppy, nicely made with good depth and spring of rib, good dentition, he just needs time to mature, moved well.

LD 2(0) 1. Parker-Tucker's Uniquecottage Grey Borage. Good head with dark eye, well set on ears, nice dentition, flowing neck leading to well placed shoulders, nice depth and spring of rib, level top-line and well set on tail, firm loin and good rear angulation, moved out well.
2.Hiam's Carradine Podgy Paddie. Lovely head with good bite and ear set, good dentition, flowing neck leading to well placed shoulders, nice depth and spring of rib, level top-line and well set on tail, flowing movement.
